

ROULETTE

○ ● ● —————

NEW + ADVENTUROUS

POLICIES TO MITIGATE THE SPREAD OF COVID-19

Roulette is operating in accordance with guidance issued by the CDC, New York State and the NYC Department of Health, state and national occupational health and safety guidance, as well as utilizing industry best practices for infection control in event-based environments. The health and safety of our employees, contractors, performers, and visitors is our top priority. For the most up-to-date information on Roulette's Current Operating Procedures, please visit roulette.org/reopening.

Entry will not be permitted if any of the following are true within 14 days or less from the date you will be onsite at Roulette.

- You have/are exhibiting symptoms consistent with COVID-19. More info available here: <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/if-you-are-sick/isolation.html>.
- You are caring for someone or have you knowingly come into contact with someone diagnosed with COVID-19 or with symptoms consistent with COVID-19.
- You have traveled internationally and/or domestically to locations during a time when those locations were under travel restrictions, mandated quarantines, or border closures. More information here <https://coronavirus.health.ny.gov/covid-19-travel-advisory>.

Screening questionnaire: Individuals entering Roulette will be asked to review and fill out Roulette COVID-19 Policies and Pre-entry Screening Questionnaire once onsite at the venue prior to being permitted entry to the space.

Temperature screening: Roulette will conduct pre-entry temperature/health screenings. At Roulette's sole discretion, anyone with a fever of 100.4F or over, or who does not otherwise pass the screening, will not be allowed entry.

Face coverings: Masks must be worn at all times inside Roulette except for at mutually-agreed upon times and/or in specific locations. These exceptions will be mutually agreed upon and detailed in advance of any contracted work or scheduled Event at Roulette.

Hand hygiene: You agree to wash your hands or use sanitizer immediately upon entry and after any of the following activities: using the restroom, sneezing, touching one's face, blowing one's nose, eating, drinking, and leaving and re-entering the venue. All persons in Roulette's space will limit the sharing of objects, such as instruments, equipment, tools, laptops, notebooks, telephones, touchscreens, and writing utensils, as well as the touching of shared surfaces; and will be required to wear gloves when in contact with shared objects or frequently touched surfaces; or, required to perform hand hygiene before and after contact.

Physical Distancing: Everyone is asked to practice physical distancing by maintaining at least six feet of distance from one another, including while on stage. Seating and other physical layouts will be arranged to ensure appropriate distancing. Physical distancing of six feet must also be maintained around the sound booth and lighting consoles, whether or not the AV technicians are there. Markers to indicate a 6-foot perimeter will be in place when possible.

Access: You will have access to designated areas of Roulette as previously agreed upon and/or detailed to you by Roulette staff onsite. You will abide by all signage for areas that are closed or off-limits.

Production/Technical Requirements: All production related activities must be discussed and agreed upon prior to activities taking place onsite at Roulette. Roulette requires artists or rental clients to submit advance setup information and technical requirements including number of performers, input list, stage plot/blocking, etc. no later than 10 days prior to onsite activity.

Backline Equipment: Only Roulette Staff is allowed to handle the setup of in-house backline equipment unless agreed upon prior to onsite activity. Artists or rental clients are fully responsible for setting up and breaking down any equipment that they bring to Roulette.

Roulette Staff Instructions: Visitors, performers, rental clients, and guests agree to address questions to and follow the instructions of Roulette Staff.

Failure to Adhere to Roulette Policies: Roulette reserves the right to remove any individual from the venue who fails to adhere to any of the policies outlined above or anyone whose actions otherwise pose a health threat to others on site.